

denise campbell—
entICE

“An exhibition broadly centred on the theme of journeys as a historical and imaginative process and drawing inspiration from one particularly significant mid 19th-century expedition to the Arctic.

Each painting and print are seeking connections, like putting together stones in a bridge linking past and present. An arc between then and now.”

new works

23.07.21 —
09.08.21